13.5.4 The Board shall organize its activities and allocate sufficient time to perform the duties and responsibilities assigned to it, including preparing for Board and committees' meetings and ensuring the coordination, recording, and retaining of the minutes of its meetings.

14 Secretary of the Board

The Board shall appoint a secretary among its members or a third party, whose competencies and wage shall be specified by a Board resolution, unless the Company's bylaws include provisions in connection therewith, provided that such powers shall include:

14.1 documenting the Board meetings and preparing minutes therefor, which shall include the discussions and deliberations carried during such meetings, as well as the place, date, times on which such meetings commenced and concluded; and recording the decisions of the Board and voting results and retaining them in a special and organized register, and including the names of the attendees and any reservations they expressed (if any). Such minutes shall be signed by the chairperson of the meeting, all of the attending members and the secretary;

- 14.2 retaining the reports submitted to the Board and the reports prepared by it;
- 14.3 providing the Board members with the agenda of the Board meeting and related worksheets, documents and information and any additional information, related to the topics included in the agenda items, requested by any Board member;
- 14.4 ensuring that the Board members comply with the procedures approved by the Board;
- 14.5 notifying the Board members of the dates of the Board's meetings within sufficient time prior to the date specified for the meeting;
- 14.6 presenting the draft minutes to the Board members to provide their opinions on them before signing the same;
- 14.7 ensuring that the Board members receive, fully and promptly, a copy the minutes of the Board's meetings as well as the information and documents related to the Company;
- 14.8 coordinating among the Board members;
- 14.9 regulating the disclosure register of the Board and Executive Management as per Article (89) of the Corporate Governance Regulations; and
- 14.10 providing assistance and advice to the Board members.

The Secretary of the Board may not be relieved except pursuant to a decision of the Board.

15 Qualifications of the Secretary

The Board must specify the conditions that the secretary must meet, provided that they include at least one of the following:

- 15.1 The person holds a bachelor's degree in law, finance, accounting or administration or their equivalent, and has relevant practical experience of not less than three years; or
- 15.2 He/she has relevant practical experience of not less than five years.

16 Training, Support and Assessment

16.1 Training

The Company shall pay adequate attention to the training and preparation of the Board members, committee members, and the Executive Management, and shall develop the necessary programs required for the same, taking the following into account:

- 16.1.1 preparing programs for the recently appointed Board members, committee members, and Executive Management to familiarize them with the progress of the Company's business and activities, particularly the following:
  - 16.1.1.1 the strategy and objectives of the Company;
  - 16.1.1.2 the financial and operational aspects of the Company's activities;
  - 16.1.1.3 the obligations of the Board members and their duties, responsibilities, and rights;
  - 16.1.1.4 the duties and competencies of the committees of the Board.

- 16.1.2 developing the necessary mechanisms for Board members, committee members, and the Executive Management to continuously enroll in training programs and courses in order to develop their skills and knowledge in the fields related to the activities of the Company.

17 Providing Members with Information

The Executive Management of the Company shall provide the Board members, the Non-Executive Directors in particular, and the committees of the Company with all of the necessary information, details, documents and records, provided that they shall be complete, clear, correct and non-misleading, in due course to enable them to perform their duties and obligations.

18 The Assessment

- 18.1 The Board shall develop, based on the proposal of the nomination committee, the necessary mechanisms to annually assess the performance of the Board, its members and committees and the Executive Management using key performance indicators linked to the extent to which the strategic objectives of the Company have been achieved, the quality of the risk management and the efficiency of the internal control systems, among others, provided that weaknesses and strengths shall be identified and a solution shall be proposed for the same in the best interests of the Company.
- 18.2 The procedures of performance assessment shall be in writing and clearly stated and disclosed to the Board members and parties concerned with the assessment.
- 18.3 The performance assessment shall entail an assessment of the skills and experiences of the Board, identification of the weaknesses and strengths of the Board and shall attempt to resolve such weaknesses using the available methods, such as nominating competent professional staff able to improve the performance of the Board. The performance assessment shall also entail the assessment of the mechanisms of the Board's activities in general.
- 18.4 The individual assessment of the Board members shall take into account the extent of effective participation of the member and his/her commitment to performing the his/her duties and responsibilities, including attending the Board and its committees' meetings and dedicating adequate time thereof.
- 18.5 The Board shall make the necessary arrangements to obtain an assessment of its performance from a competent third party every three years.
- 18.6 Non-Executive Directors shall carry out a periodic assessment of the performance of the chairman of the Board after getting the opinions of the Executive Directors, without the presence of the chairman of the Board in the discussion on this matter, provided that weaknesses and strengths shall be identified and a solution shall be proposed for the same in the best interests of the Company.

19 Conflicts of Interest.

19.1 Dealing with Conflicts of Interest and Related Parties Transactions

Without prejudice to the provisions of the Companies Law and its implementing regulations, conflicts of interest situations and Related Parties transactions shall be dealt with in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

19.2 Conflicts of Interest Policy

The Board shall develop an explicit and written policy to deal with actual and potential conflicts of interest situations which may affect the performance of Board members, a member of its committees, or the Executive Management or any other employees of the Company when dealing with the Company or other Stakeholders. This policy shall include the following in particular:

- 19.2.1 informing members of the Board and its committees, Substantial Shareholders, Senior Executives, and other employees of the Company of the importance of avoiding situations that may lead to a conflict between their interests and the interests of the Company and dealing with them in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Law and its implementing regulations.
- 19.2.2 providing examples of conflicts of interest situations that are relevant to the nature of the Company's activity.
- 19.2.3 clear procedures for disclosing conflicts of interest in the activities that may lead to such conflicts and obtaining authorization or the requisite approval.
- 19.2.4 the obligation to constantly disclose situations that may lead to conflicts of interest or upon the occurrence of such conflicts.
- 19.2.5 the obligation to abstain from voting or taking part in decision making when there are conflicts of interest.
- 19.2.6 clear procedures when the Company contracts or enters into a transaction with a Related Party, this shall include notifying the Authority and the public without any delay of that contract or transaction if it equals to or exceeds 1% of the Company's total revenues according to the last annual audited financial statements.
- 19.2.7 procedures to be taken by the Board when discovering that such policy is violated.

19.3 Avoiding Conflicts of Interest

- 19.3.1 A member of the Board shall:
  - 19.3.1.1 perform the his/her duties with honesty and integrity, and not prioritize the person's own interest over the interests of the Company and its shareholders, and not use the person's position to achieve personal interests;
  - 19.3.1.2 avoid situations of conflicts of interest and notify the Board of situations of conflict which may affect the person's neutrality when looking into matters presented before the Board. The Board shall not allow such member to be involved in deliberations and shall not count the person's vote when voting on such matters in the Board and the Shareholders Assemblies meetings; and
  - 19.3.1.3 protect the confidentiality of the information related to the Company and its activities, and do not disclose any such information to any person.
- 19.3.2 Each Board member is prohibited from misusing or benefiting, directly or indirectly, from any of the Company's assets, information or investment opportunities presented to the Company or to him in the person's capacity as a member of the Board. This includes investment opportunities which are within the activities of the Company, or which the Company wishes to make use of. Such prohibition shall extend to a Board member who resigns to, directly or indirectly, use investment opportunities that the Company wishes to use, which came to the person's knowledge during the his/her membership in the Board.

19.3.3 Disclosure of Conflicts of Interest by Nominees

A person who desires to nominate himself/herself for the membership of the Board shall disclose to the Board or the General Assembly any cases of conflicts of interest, including:

20 Company Committees.

20.1 General Provisions

20.1.1 Forming the Committees

Without prejudice to Article (51) of the Corporate Governance Regulations, the Board shall form specialized committees as follows:

- 20.1.1.1 as may be needed depending on the Company's circumstances in order to enable it to effectively perform its duties.

20.1.1.2 the formation of the committees shall be made in accordance with general procedures developed by the Board, which shall determine the duties, duration and powers of each committee, and the manner in which the Board monitors the activities of each committee. The committee shall inform the Board of its findings or decisions with complete transparency. The Board shall regularly follow up the activities of such committees to ensure the performance of the duties delegated to them.

20.1.2 each committee shall be responsible before the Board for its activities, this shall not relieve the Board of its responsibility for such activities, duties, and powers that it has delegated to such committee.

20.1.3 the number of members of a committee shall not be less than three or more than five.

20.1.4 the chairpersons or whom they delegate to each committee member shall attend the General Assembly Meetings, and answer any questions raised by the shareholders.

20.1.5 The Company shall provide the Authority with the names of the members and the types of their memberships in such Board's committees within five (5) days of their appointment and shall notify the Authority of any changes thereto within five (5) days of the date of such changes.

20.2 Committees Membership

20.2.1 A sufficient number of Non-Executive Directors shall be appointed to the committees which perform duties that may involve a conflict of interest, such as ensuring the integrity of financial and non-financial reports, reviewing Related Party transactions, nomination to membership of the Board, appointment of Senior Executives and determining the remuneration. Chairpersons and members of these committees shall comply with duties of care and loyalty and shall address the interests of the Company and its shareholders and prioritize them over their personal interests.

20.2.2 The Company shall take into consideration while forming the remuneration and nomination committees that their members are of Independent Directors. The Board may appoint Non-Executive Directors or persons other than Board members either from shareholders or others, provided that the chairpersons of committees mentioned in this paragraph are of the Independent Directors.

20.3 Chairperson of the Board shall not be a member of the Audit Committee. He may be a member of other committees, provided that he is not the chairperson of committees mentioned in the Corporate Governance Regulations.

20.4 Studying Subjects

20.4.1 Each committee shall assess the matters that fall within its authority or those referred to it by the Board and shall communicate its recommendations to the Board to issue decisions in connection therewith. The committees shall take decisions in regard to these matters if delegated by the Board, in pursuance of paragraph (b) of Article (20) of the Corporate Governance Regulations.

20.4.2 The committee may seek assistance from any experts or specialists, whether internal or external, within the scope of its powers. This shall be included in the minutes of the committee meeting; the minutes state the name of the expert and his relation to the Company or its Executive Management.

20.5 Committees Meetings

20.5.1 No member of the Board or the Executive Management except the secretary or a member of the committee may attend the meetings of the committee unless such committee requests the person's opinion or advice.

20.5.2 Committee meetings are valid if attended by a majority of its members. Resolutions of the committees shall be issued by a majority of the votes present and, in case of a tie, the chairperson of the relevant committee shall have the casting vote.

20.5.3 Board meetings shall be documented and minutes including the discussions and deliberations conducted during such meetings shall be prepared. Recommendations of the committees and voting results shall be documented and retained in a special and organized register, including the names of the attendees and any reservations they expressed (if any).

Such minutes shall be signed by all of the attending members.

21 The Audit Committee.

21.1 Audit Committee Formation.

21.1.1 An Audit Committee shall be formed by a resolution of the Company's Board, and the members of the Audit Committee shall be the shareholders or others, provided that no Executive Director is among its members. The number of members of the Audit Committee shall not be less than three or more than five, provided that one of its members is specialized in finance and accounting.

21.1.2 The Audit Committee shall have at least one Independent Director among its members.

21.1.3 The chairperson of the Audit Committee shall be an Independent Director.

21.1.4 Half of the Audit Committee's members must be Independent Directors or those for whom the issues affecting independence in Article (19) of the Corporate Governance Regulations do not apply.

21.1.5 The Company's General Assembly shall, upon a recommendation of the Board, issue a regulation for the Audit Committee which shall include the rules and procedures for the activities and duties of the committee, the rules for selecting its members, the means of their nomination, the term of their membership, their remunerations, and the mechanism of appointing temporary members in case a seat in the committee becomes vacant.

21.1.6 Any person who works or has worked in the Company's finance Department, the Executive Management or for the Company's external auditor during the preceding two years may not be a member of the Audit Committee.

21.1.7 A member of the Audit Committee shall not be a member of the Audit Committees of more than five listed joint stock companies at the same time.

The Audit Committee shall be competent in monitoring the Company's activities and ensuring the integrity and effectiveness of the reports, financial statements, and internal control systems. The duties of the Audit Committee shall particularly include the following:

21.2.1 Financial Reports:

- 21.2.1.1 analyzing the Company's interim and annual financial statements before presenting them to the Board and providing its opinion and recommendations thereon to ensure their integrity, fairness, and transparency;
- 21.2.1.2 providing its technical opinion, at the request of the Board, regarding whether the Board's report and the Company's financial statements are fair, balanced, understandable, and contain information that allows shareholders and investors to assess the Company's financial position, performance, business model, and strategy;
- 21.2.1.3 analyzing any important or non-familiar issues contained in the financial reports;
- 21.2.1.4 accurately investigating any issues raised by the Company's chief financial officer or any person assuming the person's duties or the Company's compliance officer or external auditor;
- 21.2.1.5 examining the accounting estimates in respect of significant matters that are contained in the financial reports; and
- 21.2.1.6 examining the accounting policies followed by the Company and providing its opinion and recommendations to the Board thereon.

21.2.2 Internal Audit:

- 21.2.2.1 examining and reviewing the Company's internal and financial control systems and risk management system;
- 21.2.2.2 analyzing the internal audit reports and following up the implementation of the corrective measures in respect of the remarks made in such reports; and
- 21.2.2.3 monitoring and overseeing the performance and activities of the internal auditor and internal audit department of the Company to ensure the availability of the necessary resources and their effectiveness in performing the assigned activities and duties.
- 21.2.2.4 providing a recommendation to the Board on appointing the manager of the internal audit unit or department, or the internal auditor and suggesting the his/her remuneration.

21.2.3 External Auditor:

- 21.2.3.1 providing recommendations to the Board to nominate external auditors, dismiss them, determine their remunerations, and assess their performance after verifying their independence and reviewing the scope of their work and the terms of their contracts;

- 21.2.3.2 verifying the independence of the external auditor, its objectivity, fairness, and effectiveness of the audit activities, considering the relevant rules and standards;
- 21.2.3.3 reviewing the plan of the Company's external auditor and its activities, and ensuring that it does not provide any technical, administrative, or consulting works that are beyond its scope of work, and provides its opinion thereon;
- 21.2.3.4 responding to queries of the Company's external auditor; and
- 21.2.3.5 reviewing the external auditor's reports and its comments on the financial statements and following up the procedures taken in connection therewith.

21.2.4 Ensuring Compliance:

- 21.2.4.1 reviewing the findings of the reports of supervisory authorities and ensuring that the Company has taken the necessary actions in connection therewith;
- 21.2.4.2 ensuring the Company's compliance with the relevant laws, regulations, policies, and instructions;
- 21.2.4.3 reviewing the contracts and proposed Related Party transactions, and providing its recommendations to the Board in connection therewith; and
- 21.2.4.4 reporting to the Board any issues in connection with what it deems necessary to act on, and providing recommendations as to the steps that should be taken.

21.3 Conflict between the Audit Committee and the Board

If a conflict arises between the recommendations of the Audit Committee and the Board resolutions, or if the Board refuses to put the committee's recommendations into action as to appointing or dismissal the company's external auditor or determining its remuneration, assessing its performance or appointing the internal auditor, the Board's report shall include the committee's recommendations and justifications, and the reasons for not following such recommendations.

21.4 Audit Committee Meetings

- 21.4.1 The Audit Committee shall convene periodically, provided that at least four meetings are held during the Company's financial year.
- 21.4.2 The Audit Committee shall convene periodically with the Company's external auditor and internal auditor.
- 21.4.3 The internal auditor and the external auditor may call for a meeting with the Audit Committee at any time as may be necessary.

21.5 Arrangements for Providing Remarks

The Audit Committee shall develop arrangements that enable the Company's employees to confidentially provide their remarks in respect of any inaccuracies in the financial or other reports. The Audit Committee shall ensure that such arrangements have been put into action through an adequate independent investigation in respect of the error or inaccuracy and shall adopt appropriate follow-up procedures.

21.6 Powers of the Audit Committee

In order to perform its duties, the Audit Committee may:

- 21.6.1 review the Company's records and documents.
- 21.6.2 request any clarification or statement from the Board members or the Executive Management.
- 21.6.3 request that the Board calls for a General Assembly Meeting if its activities have been impeded by the Board or if the Company has suffered significant losses and damages.

22 Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

22.1 Composition of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee

- 22.1.1 The Company's Board shall, by resolution thereof, set up a committee to be named the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. Members of the committee shall not be Executive Directors, provided that there shall be at least one Independent Director among them.
- 22.1.2 The Company's General Assembly, as per the Board recommendation, issues a regulation for the remuneration committee including its procedure, duties, and rules for selecting its members, the term of their membership and their remuneration.

- 23.2.10 verifying the independence of the risk management employees from activities that may expose the Company to risk;
- 23.2.11 ensuring that the risk management employees understand the risks threatening the Company and seeking to raise awareness of the culture of risk; and
- 23.2.12 reviewing any issues raised by the Audit Committee that may affect the Company's risk management.

23.3 Meetings of the Risk Management Committee

The risk management committee shall convene periodically at least once every six months, and as may be necessary.

24 Internal Control

24.1 Internal Control System

The Board shall approve an internal control system for the Company in order to assess the policies and procedures relating to risk management, implementation of the provisions of the Company's governance rules approved by the Company and compliance with the relevant laws and regulations. Such a system shall ensure compliance with clear accountability standards at all executive levels in the Company, and that Related Party transactions are implemented in accordance with the relevant provisions and controls.

24.2 Establishing Independent Units or Departments within the Company.

24.2.1 For the purposes of implementing the approved internal control system, the Company shall establish units or departments for the assessment and management of risks and for internal auditing.

24.2.2 The Company may utilize external entities to perform the duties and competencies of the units or departments of risks assessments and management and internal control without prejudice to the Company's responsibility for those duties and competencies.

24.3 Duties of the Internal Audit Unit or Department

An internal audit unit or department assesses and monitors the implementation of the internal control system and verifies that the Company and its employees comply with the applicable laws, regulations and instructions, and the Company's policies and procedures.

24.4 Composing an Internal Audit Unit or Department

The internal audit unit or department shall be composed of at least one internal auditor whose appointment is recommended by the Audit Committee. Such an internal auditor shall be responsible for the Audit Committee. The formation and operation of the internal audit unit or department shall take into consideration the following:

24.4.1 employees of such department shall be competent, independent, and adequately trained, and shall not be entrusted with any other functions that conflict with the goals of the internal audit duties or infringe upon its independence;

24.4.2 the department shall report to the Audit Committee, and shall be subordinate and accountable to it;

24.4.3 the remunerations of the manager of the audit unit or department shall be determined by a recommendation of the Audit Committee as per Company's policies; and 24.4.4 the department or unit shall be given access to information and documents and shall be able to obtain the same without any restrictions.

24.5 Internal Audit Plan

The internal audit unit or department shall operate pursuant to a comprehensive audit plan approved by the Audit Committee. Such a plan shall be updated annually. Key activities and operations, including the activities related to the risk management and compliance departments, shall be reviewed at least annually.

24.6 Internal Audit Report

24.6.1 The internal audit unit or department shall prepare and submit a written report on its activities at least quarterly to the Board and the Audit Committee. This report shall include an assessment of the Company's internal control system and the final opinion and recommendations of the unit or department. Such report shall also specify the procedures taken by each department for addressing the findings and recommendations from the previous audit, and any remarks thereon, particularly failures to promptly address such findings and recommendations and the reasons for such failure;

24.6.2 The internal audit unit or department shall prepare a general written report to be submitted to the Board and the Audit Committee on the audit activities it conducted during the fiscal year compared to the approved plan. Such report shall explain the reasons for any deviation from the plan, if any, during the quarter following the end of the relevant fiscal year;

24.6.3 The Board shall specify the scope of the report of the internal audit unit or department, based on recommendations from the Audit Committee and the internal audit unit or department. The report shall include the following in particular:

24.6.3.1 procedures for monitoring and overseeing the financial affairs, investments, and risk management;

24.6.3.2 assessing the development of risk factors threatening the Company and the existing systems, in order to confront radical or unexpected changes;

24.6.3.3 an assessment of the performance of the Board and the Senior Management with respect to the implementation of internal control systems, including specifying the number of times the Board has been informed of control issues (including risk management) and a description of the method followed to address such issues;

24.6.3.4 failures or weaknesses in the implementation of internal control, or emergency situations that have affected or may affect the Company's financial performance, and the measures taken by the Company to address such failures (particularly the issues disclosed in the Company's annual reports and its financial statements);

24.6.3.5 the extent to which the Company has complied with the internal controls when determining and managing risks; and 24.6.3.6 information describing the Company's risk management operations.

24.7 Maintaining Internal Audit Reports

The Company shall keep records of the audit reports and business documents, which shall clarify its accomplishments, findings and recommendations, and all actions taken in their regard.

25 The Company's External Auditor

25.1 Assigning the External Auditor

The Company shall assign the function of auditing its annual accounts to an independent and competent external auditor who possesses the necessary expertise and qualifications to prepare an objective and independent report to the Board and the shareholders, setting out whether the Company's financial statements clearly and impartially express the financial position of the Company and its performance in the significant areas.

25.2 Appointment of the External Auditor

The Ordinary General Assembly shall appoint the Company's external auditor based on a recommendation from the Board, provided that the following requirements are met:

- 25.2.1 the nomination shall be based on a recommendation from the Audit Committee;
- 25.2.2 the external auditor shall be authorized by Competent Authority;
- 25.2.3 the external auditor's interests shall not conflict with the interests of the Company;
and
- 25.2.4 the number of nominees shall not be less than two.

25.3 Duties of the External Auditor

The external auditor shall:

- 25.3.1 owe the duties of loyalty and care to the Company;
- 25.3.2 notify the Authority if the Board fails to take appropriate actions in respect of suspicious issues it raises; and
- 25.3.3 Request the Board to call for a General Assembly meeting if the Board has not facilitated his mission; and shall be liable to compensate the Company, the shareholders or third parties for the damages resulted from errors it commits in the course of its engagement. If an error is attributable to more than one external auditor, they shall be jointly responsible, therefore.

26 Stakeholders

26.1 Regulating the Relationship with Stakeholders

The Board shall establish clear and written policies and procedures, including its Stakeholder Relations Policy, regulating the relationship with Stakeholders with the aim of protecting them and safeguard their rights, which shall include the following, in particular:
